Being added onto the original structure, at West Sloan and Capital streets, is the concrete section shown in the foreground. Basement room was badly needed for the Sunday school program and the church decided to go on up with the structure. The auditorium in the original part will remain the same for the time being. ### Trades Confuse Fans; Junior High Work Progressing

I'M HAVING A HARD time listening to the ball games. There's enough confusion these days without adding confusion to your pleasure and that's the reason.

The St. Louis Cardinal trades have been the cause of it all. In the heat of the battle I forget these trades.

For example, I'm listening to a Pittsburgh-St. Louis game. Bobby Del Greco, the erstwhile Pirate and now a Cardinal comes to the plate to bat. I find myself pulling for him to make an out, then realize that he's a Cardinal.

Sombody will knock a ball far to center field with Bill Virdon going after it. I get to pulling for him to make the catch—then all of a sudden it comes to me that he's a Pirate and not a Cardinal any more.

The other day, with Whitey Lockman on first and Alvin Dark at bat, I found myself pulling for a double play before it came to me that they are now Cardinals and no longer Giants.

The same thing goes for the pitchers. Maybe things will get adjusted one of these days.

PAT SULLIVAN of the Midland Construction Co. which is building back the part of the Harrisburg Junior high school that was destroyed by fire, took me through the place two or three days ago and said that barring unforeseen difficulties, the structure will be ready for the start of school in September.

For a long time there was the slow work but now the men are to the place that each day shows progress. The concrete floors are just about ready for the asphalt tile and much of the wall plastering has been done. Work on the ceilings will be started right away.

The school building will have an auditorium of which the public will be proud. It'll have about 775 permanent seats and room to place additional chairs. The stage is big.

The classrooms, one can tell now, will be big, well ventilated, with lots of light.

The construction is moving along well.

PARTING QUESTION: If a buttercup is yellow, what color is a hiccup?

Answer: Purple.

Rule Communist Workers Can Get Social Security

WASHINGTON (AP)—A Social Security Administration official ruled today that a person may not be denied social security benefits because he worked for the American Communist party.

The ruling was handed down by Peter J. Hoegen, a referee of the Social Security Administration's appeals council. The ruling was made in cases involving seven Communist party employees whose eligibility for social security benefits had been challenged.

The Bureau of Old Age and Survivors Insurance held last year that the Communist party is an arm of a foreign government. It said service performed for the party was service performed in the employ of a foreign government.

Therefore, it said, social employment could not be used as a basis for payment of social security benefits. The Social Security Act excludes from coverage "services performed in the employ of a foreign government."

Hoegen found that the wage earners were the employees of the Communist party, U.S.A., or one of its subordinate organizations, but that there was insufficient evidence to show they were employees of a foreign government.

Att'y Lester Lightfoot Will Raise Lots of Tomatoes with 7,000 Plants

Attorney Lester Lightfoot, who has his law office in Harrisburg and owns a 13-acre farm between Harrisburg and Raleigh, has gone into the tomato raising business on a rather large scale.

Atty. Lightfoot states he has devoted about three acres for tomatoes and will have approximately 7,000 plants set out. Three thousand plants are now growing in the Lightfoot field and 4,000 additional plants will be set soon.

This will be the second year for Mr. Lightfoot to engage in commercial tomato raising. In 1955 he got into the business and shipped to the city markets for three or four weeks but found it to be unprofitable as the cost of picking, packing and shipping exceeded the prices paid at the city markets.

"I was losing money and was tempted to plow the crop under," Lightfoot said recently. "Then I decided to attempt to develop a local market and used The Daily Register classified ads. I advertised tomatoes at 75 cents a bushel, in the field, if the people would bring their own containers and do the picking. The ads brought remarkable results. There were pickers in the field every day right to frost time. I made money off the crop and people in the area got plenty of fine tomatoes at a reasonable cost," Mr. Lightfoot declared.

After last year's profitable experience Mr. Lightfoot decided to continue the tomato business again.

Tomato plants should be placed about four feet apart, for easy cultivation, it is said. The ground is prepared for planting by cultivator and laid off in four foot squares. Two men then do the planting by hand, putting plants where the rows cross. One man digs a hole with a shovel, the other drops the tomato plant in place and then tramps dirt around the plant.

"Two men can put out 500 plants an hour in this manner," Mr. Lightfoot said.

He expects to have tomatoes ready for market before very long.

Phone Company Asks Charges At Area Exchanges

SPRINGFIELD (AP)—General Telephone Co. today asked the Illinois Commerce Commission for permission to discontinue free interchange service between its Eldorado and five other exchanges.

The company asked authority to start charging regular tolls for the interchange service. The five other exchanges involved are Broughton, Equality, Galatia, Omaha and Raleigh.

Crippling Steel Strike Looms at End of Month

NEW YORK (AP)—A crippling steel strike costing billions of dollars became a matter of grave concern today to America's booming economy.

Both the United Steelworkers union and the industry's leading producers mapped plans for a paralyzing labor walkout at the end of this month.

The joint negotiations which began between the union and the "Big Three"—U. S. Steel, Bethlehem Steel and Republic Steel—in Pittsburgh last month have become hopelessly deadlocked.

"We are miles apart on basic contract issues," a management spokesman told the United Press.

"There'll be a strike unless the steel companies retreat from their demand for a five-year contract," a union official warned.

The union Thursday sent instructions to all its locals for an "orderly and peaceful" strike in the event a new agreement has not been reached by the June 30 strike deadline.

The major steel companies made arrangements for banking their furnaces early next week in the event there is a work stoppage.

Joint talks between the union and the "Big Three" resumed today amid deflated hopes that a peaceful settlement could be reached before the present contract runs out at midnight on Saturday, June 30.

The industry has offered the union a five-year no strike agreement calling for a package offer of more than 65 cents an hour.

Congress Will Pass Distress Bill: Douglas

CHICAGO (AP)—U. S. Sen. Paul H. Douglas predicted today Congress will pass a measure to relieve economically distressed areas such as southern Illinois.

Douglas (D-Ill.) said he was encouraged by the fact the House Banking Committee approved the bill Thursday and Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon Johnson of Texas had "referred to it on the floor as a legislative must."

"I think we're going to pass it," said Douglas at a news conference. He added however that it might get caught in the legislative logjam before Congress recesses.

The measure is designed to help economically sick areas particularly coal mining and textile manufacturing communities, get and hold industries that will reduce unemployment.

It would provide 100 million dollars annually in federal loans to encourage industrial development, 50 million dollars in loans for rural redevelopment, a 100-million-dollar revolving fund for loans to expand public facilities such as water systems, and a 50-million-dollar annual grant for public facilities.

Douglas said many southern Illinois cities have become "almost ghost towns" as residents moved elsewhere to find employment. He said many communities are in "terrible shape."

West Frankfort's population, he said, has shrunk by half in the past 10 years, and Franklin county has "big numbers on relief."

Marion and Herrin are in better shape, he said, because the government "provided Crab Orchard Lake," and several industries are operating a former ordnance plant in southern Illinois.

Douglas said Johnson, Massac, Pope and Hardin counties would qualify for rural redevelopment aid under the measure.

House Group Approves Saline River Project

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Kenneth J. Gray (D-Ill.) said today a House public works subcommittee has approved a $6,618,000 flood control project on the Saline River in southern Illinois.

The subcommittee cut from $930,000 to $232,500 the proposed cash contribution to be required from local sources, Gray said. He said it took this action on his contention that the area is hard hit economically and can not afford to put up the amount originally recommended by the Army Engineers and Bureau of the Budget.

The item is to be included in an omnibus public works authorization bill soon to be reported to the House.

Conferees Agree To Gray's Proposals

Local, Carrier Mills Firemen Battle Blaze

Fight to Save Store; Fire in 1300 Block on Washington

Worst residential fire in Harrisburg in a long, long time struck in the 1300 block of South Washington street near the noon hour today.

Three houses were demolished, a fourth badly damaged and more than an hour after the firemen arrived they were battling to save a store building.

Fighting the blaze were both Harrisburg trucks and the Carrier Mills fire department, which rushed its truck to the scene, but the firemen were hampered by low water pressure.

Destroyed with most of their contents were the following structures:

1. The house occupied by Denzil Perkins and owned by Robert Wilson.
2. The house occupied by Victor Wallace and owned by his father, T. V. Wallace.
3. A house occupied and owned by Walter Eddy. This was what was known as the Rev. A. W. Cole property.

Fire Rapidly Spreads

Damaged was the house of Otto Slankard, just north of the Perkins house. The entire south side of this building was charred and fire broke through the roof.

Reports were that the fire broke out in the Wallace house when an oil stove broke out in flames. Mrs. Wallace was at home at the time.

The house soon was in flames and they spread to the Perkins house, only about 10 feet distant to the north, and to the Eddy house, also about 10 feet away on the south side.

Fire from the Perkins house damaged the Slankard home, from which the furniture was removed.

Immediately behind the Eddy house was a store building, and firemen were trying to keep the flames from damaging or destroying this structure.

All of the houses were in the south half block on the east side of Washington street.

With the fire fighting going on through the noon hour, a large group of spectators was on hand to watch the proceedings.

All houses were frame structures.

Indiana Commission Sets Wabash River Bridge Tolls

INDIANAPOLIS (AP)—The Indiana Toll Bridge Commission today set a toll schedule for the new Wabash river bridge at Mount Vernon, including 35 cents one way for passenger cars.

The commission confirmed the date of July 7 for official opening and dedication of the new bridge, an important link between Indiana and Illinois. It said the bridge may be opened to traffic a few days earlier.

The toll schedule included 35 cents one way for passenger cars, 10-trip coupon books for $3 or 30 cents a trip, and 100-trip books for $25 or 25 cents a trip.

For two-axle trucks, the rates are 50, 40 and 30 cents depending on the number of coupons bought at one time, and for three-axle trucks 55, 45 and 35 cents.

State police said Joe Deane of Cairo is the owner of the club. However, the police did not say who would be named in the complaints to be filed with the attorney today.

Illinois Mines Show Increased Production—Far Cry from 1920s

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (Special) — Once one of the state's major industries, the mining of coal in Illinois is fighting to hold a place in the sun with some encouragement as latest available statistics show an increased production for 1954 as compared with 1953. But it is still a far cry from the industry it was back in the booming 1920s. State Mines and Minerals Director Benjamin H. Schull, Marion, has released figures showing how production and employment has gained, wavered, then spurred ahead in the early 1940s during World War II after which it resumed its downward trend, only to bounce back last year when production totaled 45,711,555 tons as compared with 41,775,752 tons in 1953, a jump of 9,935,803 tons.

Actually only 13 Illinois counties were recorded as producing more than one million tons in 1954, the last year for which complete statistics are available. These were Perry, Franklin, Montgomery, Madison (approximately), Randolph, St. Clair, Christian, Jackson, Fulton, Jefferson, Knox, Saline and Williamson. Will and Macoupin, dwindled to 125,181 and 503,142 tons, respectively, in 1954.

Schull's figures showed state-wide production in 1950 was 73,950,000 tons with a total employment of 68,163 persons. Since then both production and employment have fallen off. In 1954 production was 41,775,752 tons with 16,665 persons employed as compared with a 1953 production of 45,711,555 tons and employment of 15,623 persons, mechanization being responsible for the 1953 employment decline.

In many counties the familiar sight of a bearded working man with the traditional round lunch pail under his arm, heading for home after a day's work in a coal digging, is becoming as rare as the vanishing Indian. In Sangamon county (Springfield) for instance, where production in 1924 had a peak of nearly 7 million tons, it has fallen off to less than 100,000 for 1955.

Back in 1920 the coal industry was an important part of the economic life of Sangamon county. Then there were 32 mines which produced 6,844,049 tons and gave employment to 8,488 men. In 1924, 34 mines produced 9,950,120 tons and employed 9,897 men. Since then it has declined steadily except for wavering instances until 1955 when three lone mines produced 79,093 tons and employed only 113 men.

There are exceptions in some counties which today are bigger producers than they were in 1920. Perry (Du Quoin) in 1920 for instance produced 24 mines 2,408,900 tons and employed 3,045 men as compared with 1954 when 11 mines produced 3,289,295 tons and employed 1,248 persons, the decline in employment being attributable to modern methods of mechanized mining.

Another major exception was Randolph county which also reported increased tonnage for 1954 as compared with 1920 although employment in 1954 was below that of 1920. Randolph in 1920 reported 24 mines producing 2,408,900 tons and employing 3,045 men to rank 11th county in the state. In 1954 eleven Randolph county mines produced 3,289,295 tons and employed 1,243 to rank fifth in the state.

Saline county's 12 mines in 1954 had a production of 2,170,617 tons and gave employment to 1,369 men as against 36 mines in 1920 which produced 4,530,853 tons and employed 5,997 persons. In 1920 Saline county ranked sixth in production. In 1954 it was seventh. The following table shows production and employment in Saline county from 1920 through 1954 inclusive:

Year	No. of Mines	Total Production	No. Employees	Rank
1920	36	4,530,853	5,997	6

Steve Allen to Oppose Sullivan Show on Sunday

By ALINE MOSEY
United Press Hollywood Writer
HOLLYWOOD (U.P.)—Steve Allen bravely marches off to battle Sunday as the next NBC-TV-ite to oppose king Ed Sullivan, but Allen insists he's not out for blood. "I'm not doing this to be known as the man who knocked off Ed Sullivan," the be-speckled comedian insisted after a guest appearance here before returning to his New York headquarters. "I'd be doing the same show if this were on BBC and we had no competition. I just want to do a good show." At times the fight between NBC and CBS for that Sunday night viewing time has had viewers chuckling. Sullivan got in TV on the basement floor and took over the whole building with his easy manner, top variety acts and ump-teen guest stars. NBC has thrown in everything from monkeys to Jonathan Winters, but beat Ed only with Martin and Lewis. Now Allen will drop two of his nightly "Tonight" shows to vie with Sullivan on Sundays. The comic claims his new program will "stay casual." But his plans aren't so casual. He'll fight fire with fire with an impressive list of guest stars Sunday: Sammy Davis Jr., Bob Hope, Bambi Lynn and Rod Alexander, Dane Clark, Vincent Price, Kim Novak and Wally Cox. Hollywoodites already are predicting CBS' Sullivan will clobber the new NBC contender in their first battle. Allen's initial show falls on the date of Sullivan's eighth anniversary program—and "the great stone face" will bombard Allen with an all-time high of 45 guest stars.

President Thanks 6-Year-Old Girl for Flowers, Letter

WASHINGTON (U.P.)—President Eisenhower has thanked a 6-year-old girl who sent him flowers and a painstakingly written letter expressing hope he would "get well very, very soon."

The presidential thank you note from Walter Reed hospital, complete with a personal signature, went to Barbara Gail Cohn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Cohn of Bethesda, Md.

The first Barbara's parents knew of her letter was three days after the President's operation when Barbara emerged from her bedroom to ask: "How do you spell 'Eisenhower'?"

Barbara told her parents she was writing Mr. Eisenhower a letter on her own clown-decorated stationery. She said she also wanted to send him flowers. The Cohns warned her that the President was too important to pay much attention to little girls. But they agreed to augment her allowance to help pay for the flowers which accompanied the letter. Undaunted by her parents' caution or the ridicule she received from her 13-year-old brother, Larry, Barbara went ahead with her project. Tuesday she received this letter:

"Dear Barb, "Thank you so much for the plant of lovely yellow asters that you sent me. The flowers made a bright spot in my room, and I felt better just to know of your thought of me. "I appreciated, too, your very nice note. With best wishes, "Sincerely, "Dwight D. Eisenhower."

Revenue Service Seeks Reasons for Mistakes in Income Tax Returns

WASHINGTON (U.P.)—The Internal Revenue Service disclosed today that it is trying to figure out why so many Americans just won't fill out their income tax forms properly.

The service, feeling that it may be at fault, plans to take a good long look at the instructions and forms it sends out every year.

It hopes to eliminate at least some of the errors of commission and omission turned up in a study of 1954 income tax returns. The study, just completed, was the first ever made of the subject. It only took in those who used 1040, the longer, more complete form.

Of the 44,000,000 filing form 1040, the study showed, about 6,600,000 did not enter their social security number and about 7,500,000 left out their occupation. Among other lapses was the failure of about 1,300,000 taxpayers to list themselves as an exemption. Another 14,900,000 left off the name of his or her spouse. About 31,000,000, if they bothered to figure it out at all, didn't fill in the amount of tax due. But only about 15,800,000 left out the amount of the refund they computed.

Nearly 41,000,000 failed to put down the office where they filed their return the year before. Some 12,400,000 admitted having paid someone to help fill out their return but about 4,500,000 of these neglected to have that person or firm sign the return as required. At the bottom of the first page of the form the taxpayer is asked if his wife, or husband, is filing a separate return. A "yes" or "no" box is provided. More than 41,000,000 ignored it altogether.

On Page 3 of the return some 27,600,000 taxpayers claimed deductions, such as contributions, taxes, interest payments, medical expenses and contributions. But they did not itemize them as required.

Officials say a little more care by taxpayers would save the government—and ultimately the taxpayer himself—"millions of dollars" in correcting these errors and omissions.

Big Torque of the Best Sellers

It would stand to reason that automobiles selling in the same league, so to speak, would be pretty close in their engineering specifications.

Like in "torque multiplication"—the twisting force a transmission delivers to the drive shaft. (The greater the torque multiplication, the greater the performance).

But what do you find?

You find that any '56 Buick with advanced new Variable Pitch Dynaflo* delivers a higher torque ratio than any standard-production car in America.

And you find that this high-torque performance is one reason for Buick's best-seller standing. For Buick is now more strongly positioned in the Top 3 of the nation's biggest-selling automobiles.

AIRCONDITIONING
at a COOL NEW LOW PRICE
It cools, filters, dehumidifies.
Get 4-Season Comfort in your new Buick with genuine
FRIGIDAIRE CONDITIONING

That's news—and there's plenty more where that came from.

For the '56 Buick is jam-packed with new engineering and styling advances to make it the best Buick yet, by far.

That new Dynaflo, for example. Not only does it bring you the top torque ratio in the nation today. It brings you the world's only switch-pitch performance in cars—plus a new part-throttle getaway response that's swifter, surer, and a gas-saver to boot.

The big new V8 engine you find in every '56 Buick—it's 322-cubic-inches big, and packed with the highest horsepower, the highest compressions and the most advanced developments in all Buick annals.

There's a joyous new ride, too—steadied on a massive X-braced keel—cushioned on deep-oil shock absorbers—and buoyant with a new levelness on both country road and highway.

There's a new steering magic here that puts a new ease at your finger tips, and a new "sense of direction" in your every handling maneuver.

Thing to do, of course, is to come see and try for yourself.

That way you can also get a good hard look at the prices that have helped move Buick to a new sales success—to outselling all other cars in America except two of the well-known smaller ones.

Will you do that, this week?

*New Advanced Variable Pitch Dynaflo is the only Dynaflo Buick builds today. It is standard on Roadmaster, Super and Century—optional at modest extra cost on the Special.

Fun Afoot in Gay Summer Slippers

IT'S FUN TO BE FOOTLOOSE and fancy free on hot summer days. These slippers, with their washable fabric tops and slim rubber soles are both pretty and comfortable. Ideal for the beach, picnics, vacations and just relaxing, both indoors and out. Inspired by the southwest, this shell (upper left) has glinting-gold Indian braid collar, satiny sole and tiny heel. Ballet pump (upper right) has spangle print on poplin fabric; is done in several color combinations. We show it in blueberry with blue ice print. Strapped slipper in wild apple candy stripes (lower left) is done in solid colors of licorice, blueberry and wild apple, too. Straw braid upper is used for shoe with cork wedge heel (lower right) and sling back buckled strap in poplin. This is a good sight-seeing shoe for the girl who likes to see the sights on foot.

Hits 200 at Benefit 'Fiesta'

PORT HURON, Mich. (U)—At least 200 persons became ill from food poisoning Thursday night after a hospital benefit "fiesta."

Thirty-four were still in hospitals and six of these were in "only fair" condition.

Samples of the food served to those who became ill were sent to the state police laboratory at East Lansing today for analysis to try and trace the source of the poisoning.

The food was served as one of the concessions at the fourth annual joint hospital fiesta, a civic event for the raising of money to buy new hospital equipment. The fiesta was held at the new Woodrow Wilson School and included rides, games and other entertainment and refreshments.

'Mad Killer' Fatally Shoots 2 Women, Girl

WARREN, Ohio (U)—Seven carloads of deputies and state patrolmen converged on the Leavittsburg area near here today to capture a "mad killer" who told officers he never would be arrested alive, then killed two women and a girl.

Trumbull County Sheriff Herbert Thomas said the fugitive killer, believed armed with a Luger pistol, was Alfred Wilson, 37, a "mad killer" with family troubles.

Thomas said Wilson was seen in his auto in Leavittsburg, east of here.

Wilson, who shot his two sisters-in-law and a 16-year old girl, was released from jail last Tuesday. He had been held on an assault and battery charge.

"This is the last time you'll arrest me alive," he told deputies as they freed him on $100 bond. The charge was pressed by his wife, Juanita, 37, mother of three.

Mrs. Hazel Botts, also a mother of three, was shot twice in the back by Wilson's Luger, fired from outside her home near Cortland.

Mrs. Geraldine Brown, 30, mother of four, was shot in the head outside her home at Leavittsburg. Nancy Worthington, 16, whose body was found along Route 303 near Windham, in adjoining Portage county was reported to have been shot twice.

Wilson also wounded Emmett Dennison, 42, a friend of his estranged wife.

Thomas said the Worthington girl was a chance victim. He said Wilson, fleeing the twin slayings, stopped beside a parked car on a dead-end street and ordered the girl and two youths out at gunpoint. Then he forced the screaming girl into his car and resumed flight.

The youths told officers Wilson asked them for money, then kidnapped the girl when they told him they had no cash.

Smoky Washes Frowned Upon

MT. CARMEL, Ill. (U)—A police magistrate ruled Thursday that it's illegal to light a trash fire whenever your neighbor hangs out the wash. Five of her neighbors complained that everytime they hung up their wash Mrs. Christina Miller would dash outside and light a fire, sending black smoke billowing over their clean clothes. Mrs. Miller said it wasn't so.

Living People More Pleasure Than TV, Man Says at Age 102

MATTOON, Ill. (U)—Tom Fisher, 102, allows that television is here to stay, "but living people are more pleasure."

Fisher has already passed his 102nd birthday, but it will be celebrated Sunday at the annual picnic of the IOOF Home where he lives.

Fisher is a native of Marion County, Tenn., where he remembers the sound and fury of nearby Civil War battles, and "my father coming home from the war with an injured arm and wearing his grey uniform."

Fisher's father died when he was 12, and Fisher worked as a miner until he retired more than 20 years ago. He has one daughter, eight grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren.

Find Clothing, Believed That of Missing Woman

SULLIVAN, Ill. (U)—Moultrie County Sheriff Glen W. Braden today reported a set of women's clothing found in the Kaskaskia River bottoms lands last spring has been "tentatively identified" as that of a missing Effingham woman.

The clothing, complete except for shoes, was found scattered along a wooded area southeast of here, and apparently was "ripped off" its wearer.

Braden said an FBI report indicated hair found on the clothing was "similar" to that of Mrs. Patricia Lewis, 30, Effingham, missing since last Dec. 28.

The clothing was found April 13. Mrs. Lewis was described as about 5 feet 9 inches tall, weighing 165 pounds, with dark hair. All the labels had been torn out of the clothing found here, except markings which showed the jacket and skirt were made in California.

The scattered clothing included an English tweed jacket, tan tweed skirt, blouse, nylon slip, panties and brassiere. Braden said missing buttons and torn catches on the underthings indicated the clothing had been "ripped off" its wearer.

The sheriff said the clothing was found by a University of Illinois student.

The Effingham County sheriff's office said Mrs. Lewis had worked in Effingham only a short time and had left her husband and two children in Jasper County.

The sheriff's office said it believed Mrs. Lewis had left Effingham with another man.

Senate Demos Deny Air Force Increase 'Phony'

Wilson Makes Charges at Top Brass Meeting

WASHINGTON (U)—Senate Democrats denied today that their efforts to add $1,160,000,000 to the new Air Force budget are "phony."

Defense Secretary Charles E. Wilson cried "phony" Thursday at Quantico, Va., where Pentagon top brass are meeting. He and Adm. Arthur W. Radford also delivered a few cuffs to a compromise plan of Senate Republicans to vote the Air Force an extra $500,000,000, most of it for long-range B52 jet bombers.

Sen. Harry M. Jackson (D-Wash.) said that the proposed $1,160,000,000 increase was only about half the $2,360,000,000 which Wilson had cut off the budget request of Air Force Secretary Donald A. Quarles.

"I am sure Mr. Quarles' request was not politically motivated and I am sure that the Senate Appropriations Committee was not politically motivated," Jackson told reporters.

"Senators on both sides of the aisle who place the nation's needs above politics voted for the increase."

Jackson said sarcastically that Wilson appears "a very busy man these days... busy half of the time putting his foot in his mouth and the other half of the time getting his foot out of his mouth."

Radford, chairman of the joint chiefs of staff, said he considered the budget for the year starting July 1 "adequate" as proposed by the Eisenhower administration. He did not favor an increase.

B52 "Greatly Superior"

Wilson, presiding over his annual conference of top civilian and military leaders here, told newsmen he doubted that Russia can launch a bombing attack on the United States with its vaunted B-52 jet bombers. America's B-52 is a "greatly superior" airplane, he said.

Fear of the growing Red fleet of heavy jet bombers led to the close vote in the Senate Appropriations Committee Monday to add $1,160,000,000 to the air budget for fiscal 1957.

Wilson's rejection of any additional money opened a rift in Republican ranks, coming at the same time that Senate Republican Lead-

Tax Collections in Illinois During May Total $44,138,315

SPRINGFIELD — The State Revenue Department today reported May collections of major taxes totaled $44,138,315, almost six million dollars more than the same month last year.

The department said the 2½ per cent sales tax collections totaled $22,021,349, up about $3,900,000 over May 1955, and the state cigarette tax yielded $2,959,534, slightly higher than last year.

The new use tax on out-of-state sales collections totaled $1,209,499, others included motor fuel taxes, $21,525,131; liquor tax, $2,149,540, and the public utility tax, $2,888,288.

MONTREAL — Lucien Menard jacked up his house and moved it half a mile to a new site in suburban Ville LeMoine Thursday. Then he found that the lot was too small.

GOP Discusses Convention Plans; Democrats Prefer 'Whistle Stop' Campaign

WASHINGTON — About 40 Republican leaders today tackled the question of how to hold a national television audience for their party convention when there is little doubt about the outcome.

With no word in sight from the still-hospitalized President Eisenhower, the GOP leaders were going ahead on the assumption that the party will renominate him and Vice President Richard M. Nixon. They had hoped for a message from him.

Today's session involved the national convention arrangements committee, which was assembled to complete plans for the 1956 party conclave opening at San Francisco Aug. 20.

Less Drama Expected

One question to be discussed was whether to shorten the convention from four days to three. Republicans have been expecting their convention to provide much less drama than in 1952 when Mr. Eisenhower's supporters were locked in a struggle with those of the late Sen. Robert A. Taft.

The committee also expected to talk about ways of keeping the speech-making lively and of avoiding time-consuming roll calls of individual state delegates.

It also was scheduled to select convention officials such as the temporary chairman, permanent chairman and keynote speaker. House GOP Leader Joseph W. Martin was slated for the permanent chairmanship.

Senate Republican Leader William F. Knowland was understood to be among those being considered for temporary chairman.

Democratic Campaign Talks

A conference of Democratic leaders was held here Thursday to discuss post-convention campaign plans. National Chairman Paul M. Butler and the headquarters staff met with the campaign managers of Adlai E. Stevenson, Sen. Estes Kefauver and Gov. Averell Harriman, the active candidates for the presidential nomination.

All of them agreed that they prefer a "whistle stop" type of campaign for the presidential nominee next autumn.

Their attitude contrasted with that of the Republicans. Even before Mr. Eisenhower's heart attack last fall, the GOP was planning to rely more on television campaigning and less on barnstorming than in past years.

Butler also reported that the Democrats want to spend upwards of $2 million for radio and television time—a figure in line with the Republican budget for radio and TV.

Castle Urges Strict Enforcement Against Sale of Fireworks

SPRINGFIELD — Atty. Gen. Latham Castle today urged state and local law enforcement officials to redouble their efforts to prevent illegal sale of fireworks for Fourth of July celebrations in Illinois.

Castle said only sparklers can be sold legally in the state, but retail sale or use of all other fireworks is not allowed under Illinois law. "Only by strict enforcement," Castle said, "can our youngsters be saved from injury or death."

Nursing Home Fire Kills Three

PRINCETON, N. J. — Three persons were burned to death today in a nursing home fire, a fire official said "went up like an ammunition dump."

Police said the dead all were women trapped in a cottage at the 10-acre foundation nursing home for Christian Scientists in nearby Princeton Township.

One unidentified patient was reported injured.

Fire officials were unable to determine immediately how many persons were routed from the blazing buildings.

Fire Chief George Cahill of Princeton said the blaze "went up like an ammunition dump. It got underway long before we got there."

Nursing Home Supt. J. Burwell Harrison estimated damage at $100,000 and said he believed a woman smoking in bed touched off the fire.

Benson, Kefauver Exchange Salvoes In Farm Speeches

ELDON, Iowa (AP)—Agriculture Secretary Ezra T. Benson and Sen. Estes Kefauver exchanged oratorical salvoes on the same platform today. Each said his party was best for the farmers.

Benson criticized "gloomy" agricultural predictions of the Democrats and warned against sacrificing the farmer "on the political auction block."

Kefauver, seeking the Democratic presidential nomination, charged that President Eisenhower has broken his 1952 campaign promises. He said the President indicates he has no intention of carrying out a new farm policy.

They spoke at the Corn Belt Farm Family Fields Day Exposition.

Benson said farm prices have increased about 9 per cent in 1956 despite the "gloomy forecasts" of a collapse.

Boy, Subject of Search, Found in Tree Near Home

COTTAGE HILL, Ill. — A volunteer search crew of 100 persons hunted for four hours Thursday for 7-year-old Bobby Robbins before finding him perched high in a tree, across the street from his home.

Bobby left home after supper to play. When he hadn't returned at 9 p. m., his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clark Robbins, reported him missing.

The search crew was hastily organized and continued for four hours until a neighbor told of hearing cries from the trees. Bobby was found sitting on one of the upper branches.

He said he had ducked in some bushes for shelter from a rain, then had climbed the tree after the rain ceased. Asked why, he said "he didn't know."

Woman Sets Two Fires Aboard Plane

CHARLOTTE, N. C. — Police held today an attractive woman who secretly set two fires aboard an airliner flying to Miami with 52 unsuspecting passengers.

Stewardess Helen Rosenthal and co-pilot J. D. Willoughby quickly snuffed out the smoldering fires before any damage was done to the Eastern Airlines Super Constellation Thursday.

Police Chief Frank Littlejohn said the woman, Miss Evelyn Mills, 36, of Cleveland, was "clearly a mental case." He said exhaustive questioning ruled out sabotage.

Illinois Will Get $343 Million Federal Road Funds in 3 Years

WASHINGTON (AP)—Illinois would get a total of $343,200,000 in the next three fiscal years under the compromise highway bill. This would include $113,500,000 for primary rural and urban roads, and $229,700,000 for interstate highways.

Honeymoon Plans of Marilyn and Playwright In Hands of State Dep't

NEW YORK — Marilyn Monroe and playwright Arthur Miller made arrangements today for a "simple" wedding but their honeymoon plans were in the hands of the State Department.

Miller, 40-year-old Pulitzer Prize winning author of "Death of a Salesman," announced the forthcoming marriage Thursday in Washington where he appeared before the House Committee on Un-American Activities. Miss Monroe confirmed the announcement to a crowd of reporters who had been waiting two hours in the lobby of her New York apartment.

The blonde actress said she would marry Miller sometime in the next three weeks. The wedding will be "just something simple," she said.

She leaves July 13 for London where she will make a picture with Sir Laurence Olivier, and said she hoped Miller could go along on a European honeymoon.

But that's where the State Department comes in. Miller, who told the committee Thursday that he once sympathized with Communism, failed to get a requested passport in 1953 when he refused to fill out an affidavit "concerning past or present membership in the Communist Party." State Department press officer Joseph W. Reap said in Washington that Miller made another passport application five or six weeks ago but that the non-Communist affidavit has not been received. Reap said that affidavit must answer "derogatory information" received by the department about Miller before he can get a passport.

China Sentences 17 Japanese

TOKYO — Communist China announced today it had sentenced 17 Japanese to long prison terms as war criminals, nearly 11 years after the end of the war.

The delayed act shocked the Japanese nation and was expected to wreck recent overtures by Red China to win Japanese friendship and trade through exchange of goodwill private missions.

Observers said the Peiping action also would be a severe blow to the Socialist party which has advocated quick normalization of diplomatic relations with Red China.

A later Peiping broadcast said 335 Japanese war criminals have been released and will be returned to Japan, the first such group freed by the Red Chinese government.

The convicted men included three former lieutenant generals in the Imperial Japanese army and two major generals. They were accused of such crimes as using poison gas, cultivating germs for germ warfare and for brutality.

Nixon to Represent Ike at Manila

WASHINGTON — President Eisenhower today named Vice President Richard M. Nixon to be his "personal representative" at the July 4 ceremonies in Manila commemorating the 10th anniversary of the Philippines independence.

White House Press Secretary James C. Hagerty said the President during a visit with Nixon at Walter Reed Hospital on Monday "urged" Nixon to make the trip to represent him and the United States at the ceremony.

POULTRY SUFFERS MOST DURING HOT WEATHER

Poultry are hurt more from the lack of water in hot weather than any other type of livestock. Chickens don't drink much water at a time. They must drink often, but a hen won't walk very far to look for water. Provide plenty of fresh, cool water for hens and pullets in houses and on range. Extra waterers are good ideas too.

I notice that those chicks that had Purina Startena are doing mighty well as I deliver Purina Growena to those same poultry raisers. Sure does rush me around these days to get everybody supplied.

MOST PRODUCTIVE AT 60°

Cattle, hogs and poultry are most productive when the mercury hovers around 60° which it "aint been doing lately." At higher temperatures they begin to have difficulty... appetites lag and efficiency decreases.

Shade and wallows or sprinkler systems do most to help hogs keep cool. Place Purina Chow and water in shade if possible.

WE SALUTE THE DAIRYMAN DURING DAIRY MONTH.

Now that Judy Godard has settled the question of where she will go to school, her mother and grandmother have both developed "run-arounds" on their heels. Mrs. Godard has been to St. Louis, Evansville, Carbondale and Anna in three days and they let her come back from Anna! Mrs. Williams took off as soon as she got back for Chicago to visit her daughter, Mrs. Earl Van Alsburg. Nice to see Mrs. Taylor Hinkle over here last week.

Congratulations to our neighbor across the street from the Checkerboard store, Mrs. Kathleen Burgess, upon her election as president of Legion Auxiliary President in District 24.

TWO WOMEN REPORT RECORD EGG PRODUCTION

Mrs. Waldo Rude and Mrs. Merriam Temple kept count of the eggs laid in March by their hens. Mrs. Rude had 120 hens that laid 105 eggs per day. Mrs. Temple had 130 hens which laid 101 eggs per day during March. They were of course raised and fed on Purina chow.

PURINA PRODUCES HEAVY FRYERS

Mrs. Marion Ozment, Rt. 1, Harrisburg, tells us that her Purina fed fryers weighed 3 and ¾ pounds when they were two months old. Mrs. L. W. Tucker's fryers, also Purina fed weigh three and a fourth pounds at the end of seven weeks and three days.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Swan and best wishes to their future. She is the former Wilma Elms.

Also to Mr. and Mrs. Fred D. Williams. She is the former Carol Lightfoot, daughter of Mrs. Frances Lightfoot, RFD 2, Harrisburg. Wish we could attend all of the family reunions we have been invited to attend and know that those Purina fed fryers tasted good at all of them.

See you all at the Fair.

Heavy Rains Deluge Ohio, Indiana Areas

By United Press

Destructive summer storms and tornado winds put Reynoldsburg, Ohio, under 4 feet of water and ranged as far west as Minnesota today.

High winds drove the rain before them. A tornado wrecked buildings on three farms near Taylor, Neb., Thursday night and ripping winds threw the top of a baseball grandstand 130 feet at Danville, Ill.

Up to 7 inches of rain deluged central and southern Indiana, flooding about 500 basements at Linton, where an 81-year-old woman had to be carried from her home when water surrounded it. A violent electrical storm knocked out the city's power supply for about five hours.

At Shoals, Ind., Frances Tolbert, 14, was killed when lightning struck a shed. Lightning also set a $20,000 fire that destroyed a Warsaw, Ind., sawmill.

The storms broke the oppressive calm of a humid heat wave which has covered much of the nation between the Rockies and the Appalachian Mountains for almost two weeks.

Cool air drove across the northern Plains, promising relief from the Dakotas to Oklahoma and from Minnesota to Missouri. The weatherman said the rest of the heat belt will keep on suffering through the first full day of summer.

Meanwhile, the mercury broke through the 100 mark in the nation's midsection. The temperature was 105 at both Salina and Russell, Kansas.

Predict Illinois Peach Crop Will Be 920,000 Bushels

SPRINGFIELD — The State Federal Crop Reporting Service said today the 1956 Illinois peach crop will be about 920,000 bushels, despite destruction of almost the entire peach crop in western and northwestern counties by frost.

The crop will be considerably above last year's 90,000 bushel crop, which was even harder hit by a late spring freeze. The 1956 crop is still about 58 per cent below the average for the last 10 years, the service said.

The crop service estimate of the state apple crop will not be made until July 10, but it reported that some frost damage "may prove to have been an aid in thinning" where blossoms were too prolific on trees in some areas.

The service said the number of fruit bearing peach and apple trees continued to decline in the state. The statewide population of bearing peach trees was placed at 590,000, down 3 per cent from last year, and the bearing apple tree population was set at 480,000, down 6 per cent from a year ago.

The apple tree figure includes only the trees in the 28 Illinois counties where apples are produced commercially.

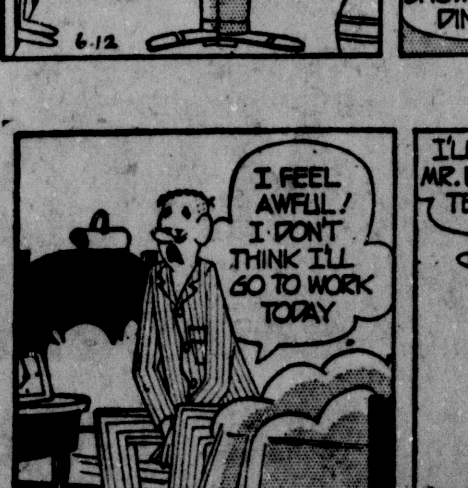

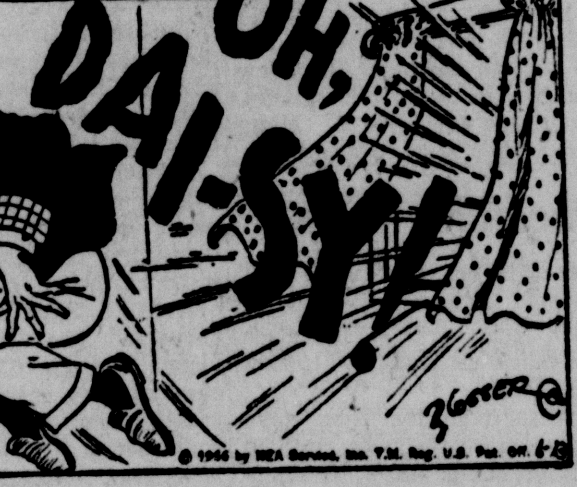

Aluminum can be rolled into foil so thin that 5,000 sheets would be needed to make up the thickness of one inch.

Granata Heads Group on Meetings Of Legislature

CHICAGO — Rep. Peter C. Granata (R-Chicago) today was elected chairman of a commission studying whether the Illinois Legislature should meet every year, instead of every two years.

Rep. John G. Ryan (D-Chicago) was named vice chairman and Rep. Herschel S. Green (R-West York) became secretary as the commission held its organizational meeting.

The commission, created by the 1955 Legislature, is due to report next year. It will hold its next meeting Sept. 11 in Springfield. Gov. William G. Stratton will be invited to attend.

Stratton plugged for a constitutional amendment providing annual legislative sessions in his message to the 1955 Legislature. Because of a technicality, however, the proposal can't be placed on the ballot for voter approval until at least 1958.

Take Children Now For Exams, School Nurse Advises

Children entering the first and fifth grades in the fall term are obliged to have a physical and dental examination, according to Illinois State law, Mrs. Ethel Mathias, school nurse, stated today.

The Harrisburg public schools encourage parents to take their children for the required health evaluation during June and July. A more thorough examination may be expected with a better opportunity for talking to the family doctor and dentist.

Further efficient examination may be had if a bottled urine specimen is taken at the time of the visit. The school nurse reminded the child's urine should be placed in a clean jar or bottle with a clean screw on lid. Avoid corks or lids that have been used in syrup or sugar saturated solutions which might influence the analysis.

Many people wait until the latter part of August to take their children for their health appraisal. However, the heat and crowded waiting rooms permit a less attractive examination. The doctor will be able to give better service through earlier examinations, Mrs. Mathias stated.

The boy's mother, Martha, noticed he was missing and saw his body in the pool. She dived in and got him and tried artificial respiration. Firemen also tried to revive him, but to no avail.

The pool is surrounded by a six-foot fence. Authorities surmised that a lock on a door to the pool had failed to catch and the boy wandered in.

Farmer Who Robbed Bank to Pay for Bills For Children Begins Prison Sentence

FERGUS FALLS, Minn. — Vernon Richter, a desperate farmer who robbed a bank to pay the bills for his six children, started a seven-year prison term today.

Richter, 31, turned to crime because it seemed the only way to keep his family and his 385-acre farm going. But in the eyes of the law he had to be punished like any other criminal.

He stood up in Federal Court Thursday and heard Federal Judge Edward Devitt pronounce sentence. Richter took the news stolidly. His wife, sitting in the courtroom, set her jaw but said nothing.

The Richter children, who provided the motive for their father's crime, did not see him sentenced.

Richter had been a hard-working well-liked farmer until a few months ago. His wife helped out working as a waitress in town. But the bills kept piling up. Even an item like 18 pairs of new shoes since Christmas was more than Richter could take care of.

Decides to Rob Bank

Early in May, he decided the only solution was to rob a bank.

He tried once, but lost his nerve. Then, on May 24, he put on an old raincoat, threw a shotgun and a length of rope into his 1953 Ford, and drove to Ulen, Minn., 70 miles away.

He stopped at a restaurant and asked where the nearest bank was. The waitress gave directions and he went to the bank, only to find the doors locked. He found another bank and walked in, the shotgun and rope hidden under his slicker.

The farmer pointed his gun at a cashier and demanded money. She pushed $1,158 at him. Then he tied up the cashier and another employee and ran out.

Afterwards, the cashier said the bandit acted like a nervous amateur. She was right. Richter made one mistake after another.

On his flight home, he got rid of one stolen license plate but forgot to remove another. He threw his raincoat in a roadside swamp, where anyone could see it. Many

Homestake Mine Now Mile Deep

LEAD, S. D. — There's a spot in mile-high Lead, S. D., that is a mile deep.

It's a shaft in the Homestake gold mine. Sea level was reached recently by crews which are deepening the shaft to reach deep-level ore bodies.

The ultimate goal of the deepening operation is 5,900 feet below the surface.

The Homestake is one of the deepest mines in the world. On a sea-level basis, the Magna copper mine at Superior, Ariz., is the lowest in the United States. The mine is down to 1,200 feet below sea level, although its total depth is only 3,400 feet.

The deepest mine in the world probably is the Kolar gold fields in India. That mine is about 7,100 feet below sea level with a total depth of about 10,000 feet.

House Approves Debt Ceiling

WASHINGTON — The House today unanimously approved a new 278-billion-dollar legal ceiling on the national debt.

The 278-billion-dollar one-year limit is 3 billion more than the old 275 billion ceiling but 3 billion less than the 281 billion limit which has been in effect for the last two years.

The new figure was recommended by the administration and approved by the House without debate.

The so-called permanent debt ceiling is 275 billion dollars. Unless congressional action on today's bill is completed, the ceiling would revert to that level.

House Committee Orders Reappraisal Of Foreign Aid Program

WASHINGTON — The House Foreign Affairs Committee today ordered a reappraisal of the "objectives, methods, and results" of the foreign aid program.

The committee by unanimous vote directed Chairman James P. Richards (D-SC) to set up the study, which will be made by the committee itself rather than an outside organization.

The committee agreed to submit its findings to the House not later than Feb. 1.

Greece Denies Soviet Visit Will Change Alignment

ATHENS, Greece — Foreign Minister Evangelos Averoff said today the forthcoming visit of Soviet Foreign Minister Dmitri Shepilov will not change Greece's alignment with the West.

In an exclusive interview with United Press, Averoff insisted Greece stands firmly in the Western camp.

But he said this did not prevent Greece from having friendly relations with other nations. Shepilov's visit might lead to progress in that direction, he said.

One of the subjects the two will discuss when Shepilov comes to Athens will be the Cyprus situation.

Dodgers Score Four Runs In Ninth to Beat Cardinals, 9-8; Braves Top Pirates

By United Press
This is the closest National league race of the century and the Brooklyn Dodgers ought to feel mighty good about that today because they were the pennant winners back in 1947 and 1950 when the closest races up to now were staged.

The Dodgers ought to be feeling great anyhow, even if they didn't have precedent on their side. For they won what was by all odds their most important game of the season Thursday night when they poured over four runs in the ninth to subdue the cocky Cardinals, 9-8, as Roy Campanella blasted his second three-run homer of the game.

The victory put Brooklyn within half a game of the first place Milwaukee Braves. Milwaukee topped Pittsburgh 7-2 to continue a six-game victory binge that began when Fred Haney replaced Charley Grimm as manager.

Campanella Cuts Loose

But what made the crowd roar in Brooklyn was an old-time demonstration of power by old-timer Roy Campanella, who had been demoted to eighth spot in the batting order.

"Maybe we can make him mad and he'll get hot like he did last year," said Manager Walter Alston. Campy had no direct answer for that except to say that "When you're batting as lousy as I have been, you're lucky if you keep you in the lineup—I guess I just finally ran out of 'outs' and hit a couple."

Before Roy's second homer things looked bad for Brooklyn. There were two out and Stan Musial had put St. Louis in front, 8-5, with his second homer, also a three-run job. Campy teed off on right hander Murry Dickson, who had come in expressly to pitch to him and that tied the count at 8-8. A walk to Sandy Amoros, Junior Gilliam's single and a game winning blow by Don Zimmer broke it up.

No Closer Race

It was established earlier in the night by the National league in Cincinnati, that no other race in this century had been any closer on June 21. On the two occasions that had been closest previously, the Dodgers rated second, a game behind the first place Boston Braves on June 22, in 1947. The Giants were third 1-2 games out of the lead and the Cubs fourth, two games off. In 1920 Cincinnati led on June 22 and Brooklyn was second by 1-2. The Cubs and Cardinals were tied for third, two games back.

Today, Milwaukee leads by a half game, Brooklyn is second just a half game in front of Cincinnati and St. Louis is fourth 1-2 games off the pace. Pittsburgh is two games off in fifth.

The Braves, definitely to be reckoned with, won for the fourth time in a row at Pittsburgh as Danny O'Connell drove in four runs with a double and two singles and Del Rice contributed two doubles. Bill Bruton hit a homer. Bob Buhl's eight-hit victory was his seventh. Double One-Hitter

In the American league, Lefty Jack Harshman was the shining star with a one-hit 1-0 victory for the White Sox over the Orioles in which loser Connie Johnson also gave up only one hit. Earlier this year, Harshman pitched a two-hit shutout in which loser Herb Score of Cleveland also turned in a two-hitter. Chicago got the winning run and ended the suspense of a possible double no-hitter in the first inning when Jim Rivera walked and Nellie Fox doubled him home. Harshman pitched hitless ball until Gus Triandos led off with a seventh inning double.

The Athletics drubbed the Senators, 15-4, in a bat battle at Kansas City in which Vic Power made three hits and Gus Zernial and Joe DeMaestri hit homers for the winners. Harmon Killebrew hit a grand slam homer for Washington.

Cleveland topped Boston 5-0 on Early Wynn's four-hitter and it marked the first time in more than a year the Indians were able to beat Tom Brewer who had subdued them seven times in a row. Two of Boston's hits were bunts by Jim Piersall and another a wrong field single by Ted Williams, hitting against a defensive shift.

The Chicago at New York National league game was rained out and there were no other games scheduled.

Unbeaten Rory Calhoun Faces Willie Vaughn

NEW YORK (AP)—Unbeaten Rory Calhoun, the world's "hottest" young middleweight, risks his 21 straight victories tonight in his first Madison Square Garden main event against a more skilled and experienced opponent, Willie Vaughn, the California state champion.

Sluggish Calhoun of White Plains, N. Y., is favored at 13-5 to beat boxer Vaughn of Los Angeles in the TV-radio (NBC) 10-rounder because of his punch and because of the supposition that lanky Vaughn will be off-form due to idleness.

California Willie, 23, hasn't had a fight in nearly 11 months because of managerial difficulties. But now he has a new and wealthy pilot, and he has trained rigorously for this match, which he hopes will start him moving toward a title shot.

Meanwhile, 21-year-old Calhoun has been busy. He registered five straight victories this year. They included three knockouts, which brought his kayo total to 11 for his 21 fights. His best wins were a decision over Jackie Labau and a first-round knockout over Randy Sandy in his last bout on May 14. He is an aggressive, slam-bang hooker who tries to mow his opponents down.

FLYING HORSE

Tall Drifter

By W. Edmunds Claussen

Copyright, 1956 by W. Edmunds Claussen. Distributed by NEA Service, Inc.

THE STORY: Although Emmett Cash tried unsuccessfully to make an outlaw of Frank Ude, the tall drifter decides to play out his hand in Cashtown. Frank takes a job as foreman of the Rafter C, operated by Emmett's half-sister Jean.

XVII

Tod Drury's wrinkled face glowered from the cook stove. Here was a wind-bitten, saddle-galled cowman grown old at his trade. "Miss Jean put you on, eh?"

Frank smiled, drawing a battered captain's chair to the table. "She hooked me, Tod. Mind telling me something? What kind of wolves do we face on this Cashtown range?"

"The worst blackleg kind. Hungry ones."

Frank asked quietly, "When it comes to delivering the horses how many hands can I count on?"

"Three, not figuring Miss Jean or yourself. Only she'll leave Rickety to home on the drive."

"She told me to keep you behind on headquarters."

A strange, articulate gurgle caught in Tod Drury's throat and he nearly pulled the fly netting off the window in spinning about. "Let me look in your face. You can't be tellin' the truth! That old buzzard can't no longer fork a saddle!"

"I'll probably ask Rickety to drive the wagon."

"We'll see," he growled and again turned to the window. "I could quit before I take such indignities as stayin' to home."

"Did you figure maybe I'll need somebody here that can handle a rifle? We don't want to return from Fort McHenry and find the buildings in ashes. You're the man."

Something happened to the planes of Drury's face; his deep-etched lines smoothed out about his mouth and a gleam crept into his eyes. "Course it wouldn't be any sense at that leavin' Rickety here. He can't no longer feed himself. His eyes are so bad she might as well leave a sick pup to guard the place."

"So it stacks up I've got two old men and a boy to help move those horses to McHenry?"

Tod's eyes bored at him. "I don't subscribe to them sentiments. One of us is Old Man Time, but it sure ain't me. I'm solid as iron." Then a little softness crept into his voice as he turned mentally back in time. "Rafter C has still got its friends. Vogel Cash was a good-hearted soul. Too good. He gave away more than he ever kept for himself. Could well be a couple more riders'll show up when you're ready for the horse trail."

A hundred questions dragged across Frank's mind that needed answers.

"Is she going to marry him, Tod?"

"No, I don't think so—as long as I and Rickety have guns. Took her a little while to find out how rank a man can be, but that day in Circle N ranch yard Milo Hackett showed her Norring's slick talk was all rotten. She won't marry him now."

Slowly Frank asked, "What were you doing in Norring's ranch yard?"

"Delivering her cattle."

After that a dull silence held until Frank broke it. "Why deliver Rafter Cs to Norring? Had she sold stock to Circle N?"

"Suppose," Tod Drury said dryly, "suppose you were to ask Miss Jean that question."

Jean Cash watched Norring walk into the parlor behind her.

For a long period during the beginning of their friendship he had called regularly several times a week. He had become increasingly domineering, and she understood then why a certain streak within her character had rebelled against him. He came into the room now as a stranger.

Her first words were held low and soft. "It was Emmett who shot the horse from under the posseman, wasn't it? Then why blame Frank Ude? Let's be realistic, Steve."

"They were riding together. Your brother has your horses. And Ude was with him when they were stolen."

Not even Norring could lie holding such a straight face. He believed what he told her, and if he believed it then it was true. This was news to her, confirming her worst fears. "So Emmett is going to fight me to the last ditch?"

He nodded sagely. "I have had everything else thrown at me. I hope you don't blame me because Emmett's turned outlaw."

She knew he said this because he still felt some guilt for having taken the Alhambra from Emmett. But she said honestly, "No Steve."

"You've sacrificed everything. Your cattle are gone—thrown away to pay for his losses. If I hadn't moved my steers onto Rafter C you'd have strange brands fattening on your grass now."

Her expression became considerably firmer. "Your beef isn't here by my invitation."

He smiled dryly, brushing her rebuff aside with a careless gesture. "Your notes stretch beyond the normal limits of realistic investment for the bank."

Once again she broke in, ignoring his talk. "Where has Emmett camped this time?"

"Yates's homestead. Haven't you heard the old saw about like begets like?" Her eyelids were lowering dangerously, a warning he shouldn't ignore. "This is only what I overheard, Jean. My bartenders catch talk I haven't mentioned the Yates place to the sheriff."

"Steve, each time you come here you are more saloon keeper and less banker."

House to Take Up School Bill Next Week

WASHINGTON (AP)—The House leadership will call up the long-stalled $1,600,000,000 school construction bill for action next week, it was learned today.

The measure is expected to reach the floor Wednesday or Thursday in a drive to try to get a final vote on it before Congress goes home in middle or late July.

The House Rules Committee cleared the way for action on the bill Wednesday by voting 3-3 to send it to the floor. Despite proddings from President Eisenhower, the measure previously had been in a Rules Committee pigpen for almost a year.

The margin by which the committee cleared the bill was surprising. Backers had been counting only on a one or two vote majority.

Five Democrats and three Republicans teamed up to approve the bill. Two Democrats and one Republican were opposed.

Sponsors of the bill are confident they will win House approval although they admitted they will have a tough fight. It will kick off a segregation fight.

The Democratic-sponsored bill would allot 400 million dollars annually to the states for four years

Hodge Aide Dies

CHICAGO (AP)—Leslie P. (Ike) Volz, 60, of Chicago, an administrative assistant to State Auditor Orville E. Hodge, died Wednesday of an apparent heart attack.

Volz was appointed to the Chicago office by Hodge in 1953. He once served as administrative assistant to former Governor Dwight Green.

On a basis of school population. An administration plan, which Republicans will try to substitute, would give the states 250 million dollars annually over a five-year period and would allot part of the funds on a "need" basis.
